MEMORANDUM FOR: (see distribution)

SUBJECT : U.S. Government International Narcotics Control

1. You may find of interest and perhaps of some use the attached chart on "U.S. Government International Narcotics Control." The chart may at first glance appear somewhat complex; the reality may perhaps be somewhat more complex.

2. You will note that the Director of CIA is a member of the Cabinet Committee on International Narcotics Control (CCINC). The CIA member of the CCINC Working Group is [redacted], who is the DCI coordinator on international narcotics matters. I am the CIA member of CCINC Working Group's Coordinating Subcommittee. The Intelligence Subcommittee is headed by [redacted], and the CIA member of that subcommittee is [redacted] who is also my alternate as DDI Coordinator on International Narcotics Matters. The CIA member of the recently established Research & Development Subcommittee is [redacted] of DOD/DDS&T. There is no CIA representation on the other subcommittees shown on the attached chart. There has been both DDI and DDP participation on the regional interagency narcotics control committees shown at the bottom of the attached chart. These regional interagency committees are chaired in State. DDI representation on these committees has in large part been handled by me, but also in some areas by personnel of OCI area divisions.

January) are not shown on the attached chart. The charter of the Ambrose office has to do with Federal law enforcement, and hence essentially has to do with domestic affairs. However, there has been much discussion, still going on, of how foreign intelligence efforts can assist or be used by Ambrose in his new job.
